

TENUTA DI ARTIMINO

Ferdinando I

Rosso Toscana

Indicazione Geografica Tipica

- Grapes: 80% Merlot, 20% Cabernet Sauvignon
- Alcohol: 14% Alc. by vol.

Historical data and soil

This wine is dedicated to Grand Duke Ferdinando I de' Medici, who in 1596 commissioned Villa La Ferdinanda in Artimino, now a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The soils are quite fertile and deep, with good water availability.

Vinification

This wine is dedicated to Grand Duke Ferdinando I de' Medici, who in 1596 commissioned Villa La Ferdinanda in Artimino, now a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The soils are quite fertile and deep, with good water availability.

Tasting notes:

- Visual: The wine is a deep red-purple color.
- Olfactory: The wine's nose is intense, with notes of ripe fruit and vanilla.
- Gustative: The wine has excellent structure and smoothness.